Do Protestant ministers agree with this?

CONGREGATIONALIST: "It is quite clear that however rigidly or devotedly we may spend Sunday, we are not keeping the Sabbath."
Dr. R. W. Dale, The Ten Commandments, page 106.

METHODIST: "Sabbath in the Hebrew language signifies rest and is the seventh day of the week.... And it must be confessed, that there is no law in the New Testament concerning the first day." -- Buck's Theological Dictionary.

BAPTIST: "There was and is a commandment to keep holy the Sabbath day, but that Sabbath day was not Sunday. It will be said, however, and with some show of triumph, that the Sabbath was transferred from the seventh to the first day of the week.... Where can the record of such a transfer be found? Not in the New Testament-absolutely not. ... Of course, I quite well know that Sunday did come into use in early Christian history.... But what a pity that it comes branded with the mark of paganism, and christened with the name of the sun god, when adopted and sanctioned by the Papal apostasy, and bequeathed as sacred legacy to Protestantism." Dr. E. T. Hiscox, author of the Baptist Manual.

"We ought to obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29.

STATEMENTS ON THE LAW:

John Wesley: "The moral law contained in the Ten Commandments and enforced by the prophets, He (Christ) did not take away. It was not the design of His coming to revoke any part of this. This is the law which never can be broken, which 'stands fast as the faithful witness in heaven.'" Wesley continues: "The ritual or ceremonial law, delivered by Moses to the children of Israel, containing all the injunctions and ordinances which related to the Old Sacrifices and service of the Temple, our Lord indeed came to destroy, to dissolve, and utterly abolish. The Works of the Rev. John Wesley, 1829, Third Edition, Vol. 5, P. 311.

Martin Luther

Question: Are we under obligation to keep the moral law?

Answer: Yes, because that is founded on the nature of God, and cannot be changed; it is of universal application, which was impossible with respect to the ceremonial laws.

Question: Are we under obligation to keep the ceremonial or church laws of the Jews?

Answer: No, the ordinances which it enjoined were only types and shadows of Christ, and when they were fulfilled by His death, and the distinction between Jew and Gentile was removed, the ceremonial law was abolished, because it was no longer necessary.--Shorter Catechism, p. 16

Billy Graham

Question: Some religious people I know tell me that the Ten Commandments are part of the "law" and do not apply to us today. They say that as Christians we are "free from the law." Is that right?

Answer: No, it is not right, and I hope you will not be misled by these false opinions. It is very important to understand what the New Testament means when it says that Christians are "free from the law." It certainly does not mean that they are free from the obligations of the moral law of God and are at liberty to sin.
